The entire South is interested in the forthcoming marriage of Miss Virginia Lee, youngest daughter of the late General Fitzhugh Lee, to Lieutenant John Carter Montgomery, Seventh Cavalry, United States Army. She is tall, possessed of the famed beauty of the Virginia Lees, is an excellent horsewoman and an accomplished conversationalist. She has, since her debut, been a belle in the capital of her native State.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Deering are again at their home on Broderick street. They had a delightful time in Yellowstone Park and Canada, where they spent a portion of the summer. Since returning they have been at Mountain View, on their ranch, occasionally. Mrs. M. M. Estee, Mrs. Deering's mother, is at a private hotel on this side for the winter. Last season she spent in Alameda.—Chronicle.

He is assistant engineer of the Wyoming and Nebraska irrigation project on the North Platte river, one of the largest government undertakings. The wedding will take place about Thanksgiving day and will be a quiet home affair.

The Korea carried quite a few of our well-known people, including Mrs. Whitell and Miss Florence Whitell, who are starting out on another trip around the world. Mrs. Mary P. Huntington and Miss Marion Huntington are going to the Orient, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Foster Dutton are bound for Honolulu, where they already have a cottage engaged at Waikiki, where they will keep house this winter and will be near the cottage of Mrs. Dutton's sister, Mrs. Harry Macfarlane, who has but recently returned from visiting the Duttons at San Rafael. As Mr. and Mrs. Dutton passed last winter there, they feel quite at home in Honolulu.—Call.

At the German Church on Wednesday occurred the marriage of Miss Emma Unbrich and Prof. Erich Kahl, and was the occasion of the gathering together of over two hundred friends of the young people gathering to wish them success in their married life. The ceremony was according to the custom of the German church and was performed by the Rev. Mr. Felmy, pastor of the congregation.

The bride has been in this city less than two weeks having just arrived from Germany where she had known Prof. Kahl since childhood and become betrothed to him. She is a splendid vocalist and a capable pianist. Prof. Kahl is recognized as probably one of the ablest pianists in the Territory, and is the musical director of the German Church in Honolulu.

During the reception which followed the ceremony the bride and groom favored the guests with a number of piano duets, and the bride sang several solos accompanied by her husband. They were the recipient of a great many splendid presents from their numerous friends.

Henry Ware Lyon Jr. will arrive in the city from Manila this week and go to his parents at Mare Island, where he will remain during the rest of Admiral Lyon's stay at the yard. Mrs. Lyon will sail for Honolulu on October 8, accompanied by her son. They will be followed in December by Admiral Lyon, whom business will take to Boston immediately after his retirement for a month or two. While there he will be the guest of his sister, Mrs. Oliver Bacheller, who visited the Lyons at Mare Island last year. Admiral and Mrs. Lyon will probably make their home in Honolulu for some years.—Examiner.

Principal F. W. Damon of the Mills Institute and Rev. E. W. Thwing returned Wednesday from Kauai, where they assisted in the dedication of a new Chinese church at Hanapepe. It will be used as a school during the afternoons of the week.

Miss Margaret Hyde-Smith will be guest of honor at a large luncheon to be given at the Fairmont by Miss Marion Zelle. The marriage of Miss Hyde-Smith and Mr. Dillingham of Honolulu, whose engagement has just been announced, will be an event of the coming season. It was during her visit to Mr. and Mrs. Irwin in Honolulu that the young people met, and Miss Hyde-Smith is eager to have Miss Helene Irwin rearrange her plans for an Eastern winter in order to be present at her wedding.—Chronicle.

Miss Ella Wright has gone to Hilo for a few weeks.

The wedding of Miss Rosie Vieira and Mr. V. Fernandez, which occurred on Wednesday evening of this week, was one of the most largely attended church weddings which have taken place in Honolulu for some time. The ceremony was performed in the Catholic Cathedral by the Rev. Father Stevens. The Cathedral choir rendered beautiful and appropriate nuptial music.

The bride is a charming and accomplished young woman with many friends. She is sister of J. A. R. Vieira, the jeweler, at whose home an elaborate reception was held after the ceremony.

Mr. Fernandez is a popular young man employed as deputy in the Territorial Tax Office.

In turn Capt. Ahlert and his officers have entertained with a number of small teas and dinners on board the vessel of which he is commander, all of which have been very pleasant affairs.

On Monday evening there was a large reception given in honor of Capt. Ahlert, at the home of R. M. Isenberg

Mr. and Mrs. E. Faxon Bishop are at Waikiki for a few weeks.

Mrs. Tarn and Miss Tarn, formerly of Honolulu, but for a number of years residents of Paris, were the hostesses at an elaborate dinner at the Young Hotel last Wednesday evening, the occasion being in the nature of a farewell to some of their many friends in this city, as they sail for Paris on the Manchuria.

The dinner was exceedingly pretty in its appointments, the large round table being laid for twenty, and profusely decorated with pink and white roses and ferns. The chandeliers and room were hung with ropes of malle and ferns.

The dinner prepared and served under the direction of the Young's famous chef, Louis Chevalier, was French in almost every feature and was one of the most perfect of its kind ever served in Honolulu.

Music was furnished by Kailua's orchestra stationed behind a screen of beautiful palms.

Among those present were Mrs. Tarn, Miss Tarn, Dr. Cooper, Mrs. Cooper, Mr. E. Long, Mr. H. D. Cobb, Mr. and Mrs. H. Macfarlane, Mr. and Mrs. Dutton, Mr. and Mrs. Graham, Chinese Consul Chang Tso Fan and Madam Chang Tso Fan.

The marriage of Miss Isabel Hannah Ashley to Mr. Ralph S. Johnstone, on Thursday evening, was one of the prettiest home weddings that have occurred in Honolulu in some time. The happy event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Pratt, on Kewalo street, whose niece the bride is. The drawing room was beautifully decorated for the occasion and quite a large number of friends of the young people were in attendance. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. S. McKeever, of the Christian Church. The wedding ceremony took place at 7:30 o'clock, and shortly after the newly made husband and wife slipped away and took a carriage to be driven to Wahiawa, where they will spend the first days of their honeymoon.

The bride was beautiful in a gown of cream colored satin, made princess style, and wore a bridal veil and orange blossoms. She was attended by Miss Irene Fisher, as bridesmaid. The groom was accompanied by Mr. T. Staff, Jr., of Wahiawa, as best man.

Both Mr. Johnstone and his bride have lived in Honolulu most of their lives and have a large circle of friends. Both formerly attended Oahu College where they first met each other, and many of the young people who attended the reception following the ceremony were friends of their school days.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Ashley, of this city, while the groom is a deputy in the office of the Collector of Internal Revenue. Both have a host of warm friends who extend their best wishes for a happy married life for the young couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnstone will be away from the city for only a few days, as business matters make it imperative for Mr. Johnstone to be back in less than a week. They expect to begin housekeeping in a short time after their return.

Miss Georgie Spleker has gone to Honolulu for some weeks' stay and writes, like all San Franciscans, enthusiastic accounts home of the joys of the "suburb." She is the guest of the Dillinghams at present, but will go to other friends before returning homeward. Shortly after her return she and her mother, with Miss Meta Breckenfeld, will leave San Francisco for New York, where they plan to spend the greatest part of the winter.—Call.

Much entertaining will be done in the near future for Miss Margaret Hyde-Smith, who since her engagement was announced a few days ago naturally has been the center of the social stage. This is about the first affair of its kind this season and at it will be several society girls who are not yet "out," Miss Zelle herself among them.—Call.

Sewall, wife of the United States Consul to Hawaii at the time of the annexation.

The Fall season will open at the Seaside this evening when a Hop will be given for Colonel Loughborough and the officers and ladies of the 13th Infantry, a special invitation having been extended to Captain Ahlert and the officers of H. I. M. S. Condor. There will be a dance whether the transport gets in or not.

Next Wednesday evening there will be a benefit tendered to Joe Rosen, the noted violinist of the city, at the K. of P. hall. He is at present recovering from a serious spell of illness and his many friends wish to show their appreciation of his previous good fellowship in the coming benefit.

The Methodist church parsonage was the scene last evening of a most enjoyable reception given in honor of the Rev. David Crane, the new pastor of the church, and Mrs. Crane. A large number of invitations had been sent out, and the attendance was very large, not only almost all of the members of the congregation being present, but also most of the pastors of other churches in the city with their wives, and many of their members.

The house was beautifully decorated with flowers and green plants. The guests were presented to the new pastor and his wife by the Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Wadman, and their two daughters, but recently returned from attending school in Ohio, who formed the receiving party.

An address of welcome on the part of the congregation was made by R. H. Trent, while Rev. Doremus Scudder and others also made brief addresses. There was some delightful musical numbers on the program, and later light refreshments were served.

Mr. Birdseye, a tourist from New York, will take a room at the Seaside today for the balance of his stay in Honolulu.

With October opens the season of social calls. It is quite out of date to make calls during the summer months now, and a number of ladies plainly announce on their cards from October to May or June. It is a most sensible fashion for, of course, a good many people go away during the hot months, and those who remain at home do not pretend to keep up calls excepting perhaps to drop in informally on intimate friends.

Mr. Richard Cooke and Miss Dagmar Sorenson will be married on Tuesday, November 12th.

Tomorrow, Sunday, a concert will be given at the Seaside during the afternoon and evening in honor of the 13th Infantry who arrive on the U. S. A. T. Logan, and the Seaside should see a merry crowd with the officers and ladies of a full regiment returning home after three years' at the seaside in the Philippines.

PROMPT RELIEF FOR A SPRAIN-ED ANKLE.

"Some time ago I sprained my ankle very badly on a loose stone," says Mr. George Stevens, who lives near Durban, Natal. "A neighbor gave me a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm with which I rubbed my ankle and then bound it up with a cloth saturated with this remedy. I was surprised next morning to find the swelling gone, but still very sore. I used the Pain Balm faithfully during that week and the sprain gave me very little trouble. We have used this remedy in our family several times since, and have never been disappointed in getting quick relief. I consider it the best household liniment on the market."
